HUNDREDS LOSE LIVES IN QUAKE AT 'FRISCO

Shock Reeled City And Fire Immediately Broke Out.

CITY AT MERCY OF THE FLAMES

Property Collapsed in the Twinkling of an Eye—Business Section of City Practically in Ruins—Dynimiting the Structures to Check the Fire.

San Francisco, April 19.—San Francisco was practically wrecked by an earthquake at 5:10 o'clock Wednesday morning.

The shock lasted three minutes and thousands of buildings were damaged, and destroyed. The loss of life is reported great. There is no water and fires are breaking out all over the city. All wires with the exception of one are gone,, The city hall, costing $7,000,000, is in ruins. Modern buildings suffered less than the brick and frame.

The confusion and excitement is indescribable. Most people were asleep, and rushed into the streets undressed. The buildings swayed and crashed, burying the occupants. There was a panic in the down town hotels. The Lick House is badly damaged, but no loss of life there is reported.

The Palace and San Francisco hotels withstood the shock. The people flocked to the telegraph offices to send messages to friends and were frantic because there were no wires. The greatest damage was south of Market street, where mostly frame buildings and tenement houses were located. There are fires in every block in that district.

At 8:50 o'clock Wednesday morning a disastrous fire broke out on the south side of Market street and is now within one block of the Palace hotel .The water mains have burst and the fire department is practically helpless. The utmost confusion exists. All business is suspended. At this moment there is only one wire out of San Francisco, a Postal Telegraph company wire. The Postal Telegraph building is badly damaged. The operating room is a total wreck. The power of every kind is gone, and there are no lights, either gas or electric. Neither the Palace hotel nor the St. Francis is gone; that is, as far as the outside goes, but the inside platering, etc., is greatly damaged.

Between the Postal Telegraph office and the water front there has been great damage by fire, which is burning fiercely, and there is little or no water. The fire is burning both on the east and the south side of the Postal Telegraph building.

The damage by the earthquake appears to have extended all over the city. The streets are blockaded with debris. They are blowing up buildings. The residence districts are safe so far as heard from.

The business section of the city from Market street to Mission street and from Bay back has been almost completely wrecked.

The Call and Examiner buildings are destroyed. Many buildings along Market and Mission streets, including the department stores, are collapsing. Hundreds of people in the cheap tenement districts are reported killed.

The offices of the Postal Telegraph company in the Hobart building are wrecked, as is the Associated Press building at 302 Montgomery street.

The residence portion is but slightly damaged, although nearly every house has been more or less injured.

In the confusion, which reigns everywhere here, it is almost impossible to learn details of the disaster caused by the earthquake. In general, it may be said that the district laying between Market and Howard streets from the bay as far west as the city hall, has been badly wrecked. The hotels in the vicinity of Third and Mrket streets were badly shaken up, but there seems [illegible] have been no loss of life there. The [illegible] department stores in this neigh[illegible] were also ruined, but the [illegible]quake occurred at an hour when [illegible] were empty and no loss of life [illegible] in that quarter.

[illegible] on Market street [illegible] cupied by cheap lodging houses and hotels, and here the loss of life is reported to be very great, though the extent of it could not be ascertained at this hour.

Fires are burning in a number of places along Market street, and the water mains having burst, the authorities have resorted to dynamite to check the progress of the flames.

As reports come in, the magnitude of the disaster grows. Fires are raging in all directions, and people are moving out of the down town section.

The loss of life may reach into the hundreds, and millions of dollars' worth of property has been destroyed.

The Valencia hotel, between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets, on Valencia street, a five story frame building, toppled over into the street, burying 75 people in the debris. Only the top story remains intact. A house on Fourth street, near Valencia, was also wrecked, killing two persons.

Many of the fire department houses are damaged so badly that it is impossible to get the fire apparatus out.

A lodging house on Seventh street, known as the Kingsley, entirely collapsed. It is on fire, and 75 to 80 people are believed to be buried in the flaming ruins.

At Twenty-second and Mission, the dry goods store of Lipman company is on fire, threatening to sweep the entire block. At Eighteenth and Valencia streets there is a crevice in the street six feet wide and entire side walks are torn up. The street car tracks are badly twisted all through the southern section of the city and traffic is at a standstill.

At the Southern Pacific hospital, water is being carried into the building from outside sources for the use of the patients.

Many people suffering from injuries are seen on the streets making their way to the different hospitals.

Fire, which has been raging in the vicinity of Fourth and Stevenson has gotten beyond the control of the firemen, and the flames have leaped to the Winchester rooming house, on the west side of Third street. Unless the flames can be checked here, the Palace hotel, one block distant, will be endangered.

The rooms in the Palace hotel were vacated early in the morning, and the guests are now returning to gather up their effects. All sorts of vehicles are being used to carry out of the danger zone everything of value.

The loss of life seems to have been confined to the poorer districts and the manufacturing territory.

For the benefit of eastern people who have friends visiting in San Francisco, it is safe to say that they have not been injured. As the hours go by, the excitement grows more intense.

Every few minutes explosions are heard as buildings are blown up to stop the progress of the flames. On lower Market street, the main thoroughfare of the city, block after block of substantial buildings have been destroyed. A big fire is raging on the corner of San Some and Pine streets, one block from the Associated Press office.

It is impossible to confirm the different rumors of the loss of life.

No reports have been received outside of San Francisco, but the damage about the bay must be enormous. Oakland is said to have suffered severely.

A fire which broke out in the Mack Wholesale Drug company, threatens to destroy the entire block.

Practically the entire water front is on fire.

On California and Pine streets the fire has reached to San Som street.

From Pine and Dupont streets fires can be seen raging all over the down town district.

A brisk wind is coming up, and the destruction of the entre business district is threatened.

Several persons are thought to be pinioned under the wreckage of the fish markets between Sacramento and Clay and Commercial streets.

On Fourth and Tehema streets an entire family was caught in the collapse of a building.

The hall of justice is momentarily expected to fall. The city hall is almost an entire wreck. The damage here is estimated at half a million dollars.

The Mechanics' Pavilion has been converted into an emergency hospital. The Grand Opera house has suffered severe damage.

The [illegible] and machine shops at Point Richmond, across the bay, have collapsed.

The facts so far as known at this hour may be summarized as follows:

Hundreds of people killed, and probably 1,000 injured.

The entire water front is ablaze.

The postoffice is entirely collapsed.

By order of the chief of police all saloons have been closed.

The damage alreday inflicted is estimated roughly at forty million dollars.

The fires ar espreading rapidly, and unless the wind comes up from the west and blows the flames toward the bay, nothing can stop the destruction of the city.

The whole north end of the city is wrecked, and the flames arespreading in all directions.

The Postal company is preparing to vacate, and this will shut off all telegraphic communication with the outside world.

From present indications the entire business section, both wholesale and retail, will likely fall a prey to the fire which is now increasing in intensity, and is being fanned by a stiff breeze.

At 11 Wednesday morning, San Francisco time, 2 o'clock New York time, the employers of the Postal Telegraph company had to leave their office on account of the fire. At the time they left, the Palace and Grand hotels were not yet on fire, but were in imminent danger.

The militia is now in charge of the town.

FOUR TRAGEDIES MARK DAY AT LOUISVILLE

Husband Shoots Wife And Then Suicides.

AFFAIR CAUSED BY JEALOUSY

Another Man Commits Suicide While in His Wife's Arms, and the Dead Body of Still Another Suicide Is Discovered in Lonely House.

Louisville, Ky., April 19.—An attempt by a husband to kill his wife, followed by his suicide and successful efforts at self-destruction by two other persons, were the features of Louisville's criminal record Tuesday.

Elihu S. Thomas, a decorator, shot his wife twice, and then turned the weapon on himself, dying instantly.

Mrs. Thomas, who, before her marriage, was the daughter of a well-known physician, is paralyzed from the waist down, as the result of her wound, but has a small chance for recovery. The wife's jealousy of her husband's attention to another woman is alleged to have been the cause of the tragedy.

While his wife's arms were clasped about him and she was endeavoring to prevent the deed, Fred Diersing, a dairyman, cut his own throat, dying almost instantly.

The dead body of L. E. Lindner was found in a vacant house whither he had gone to commit suicide.

GREENE-GAYNOR TAKE A DRIVE.

Famous Prisoners Under Escort Sightseeing in Central City.

Macon, Ga., April 19.—Messrs. Gaynor and Greene enjoyed the spring breeze and sunshine in this city shortly after noon on Tuesday, in a lengthy drive over the city, conducted by Deputy Marshal Dave Riley. They were occupants of a handsom landau, and enjoyed the ride, as tourists would on any ordinary trip of inspection. They asked for numerous privileges early in the morning and when Marshal George White was consulted he gave his consent for the ride, provided Deputy Marshal Riley was given authority.

Mrs. Greene, her daughter and son-in-law arrived in the morning, and spent nearly all day with the prisoners. Mrs. Gaynor is expected soon, the son of Captain Gaynor being already here. There was little of the strenuous imprisonment to be seen at the jail on Tuesday. The two prisoners had been given the privilege of the jail corridors, but later were allowed the freedom of the jail yards.

Marshal White assigned Deputy Dave Riley to the duty of remaining in charge of the prisoners, and such expenses as are thus incurred will be paid by them. They have also been given privilege of furnishing their cell in the hospital department of the jail at their own expense, and such other changes as they have seen fit to make have also been allowed.

LOST HIS LIFE SAVING OTHERS.

Young Man Saved Women, But Was Himself Drowned.

Tampa, Fla., April 19.—George Garry, cashier of the Tampa Electric company, was drowned in Hillsborough bay Tuesday morning a mile off Ballast point, while out with a pleasure party. The boat was overturned in rough water. Young Garry started to swim ashore to secure assistance after he and Mahoney rescued the young ladies and had placed them on the upturned boat.

Being exhausted, Garry went down some distance from his companions, and his body was not recovered until some time later.

J. T. Mahoney and the ladies were in the water an hour and fifteen minutes before they drifted ashore. One of the ladies was unconscious when she reached the shore.

Garry was recently from Boston, a member of a prominent family there.

It is announced that the depositors will be paid in full as soon as liquidation can be effected. The bank was organized under state law in 1891, with a capital of $100,000.

Buggy Factory Chartered.

Macon, Ga., April 19.—The Macon Buggy company received a charter at Tuesday's session of the superior court. This is a new organization of capital furnished by G. M. Davis and J. L. Davis, and the business promises soon to be one of Macon's most profitable. The factory begins with a small capital, but will be prepared to do a most complete and satisfactory business in the making of buggies.

Murray, collector of the port of Buffalo, N. Y., who a few days ago was indicted in connection with what is known as the [illegible] scandals.

DOWIE SHOUTS DEFI TO CITY OF ZION

Will Not Negotiate for Peace With Voliva

DOWIE WOULD HEAD CHURCH

First Apostle Declares that He Will Have Voliva Excommunicated, and Will Resume Entire Charge of Affairs in Zion City.

Chicago, April 19.—All negotiations looking toward a peaceful settlement of the question as to who shall control Zion City, and its vast resources, have been broken off.

John Alexander Dowie, through his attorneys, S. C. Wetten and P. C. Haley, threw down the gaunlet to General Overseer Wilbur Glen Voliva and his followers when a proposition advanced by the Volivaites to the effect that the $21,000,000 estate be turned over to a board of control was rejected by Dowie.

According to the provisions of this proposition the board was to consist of nine members, four of them to be selected by Dowie and a like number to be selected by Voliva. The ninth member was to be selected by the board as created. It was stipulated that both Dowie and Voliva be active members of this board, and that the action of the members thereof be final in determining whether or not the deposed "first apostle" or Voliva be the recognized head of the Christian Catholic church.

Dowie has rejected the proposal on the grounds that not only would he not acquiesce in the appointment of Voliva on the board, but that he no longer recognized the new leader as a member of the church.

In speaking of the ultimatum, Attorney Haley, representing Dr. Dowie, said:

"As soon as we can obtain the necessary information we will file a bill in chancery in the circuit court of Lake county at Waukegan. This instrument will be a petition that the transfer of the property of Zion City executed by General Overseer Voliva giving to Deacon Alexander Granger full title thereof, be declared void. We are handicapped to the extent that Voliva and his forces have in their possession all of the books and papers concerning Zion City and its property. It may be necessary for us to go into court to get possession of these. As son as we obtain the desired information, the bill will be filed."

According to the statmeents of his attorneys and of his followers, who are with him at the Auditorium Annex, Dr. Dowie will go to Zion City some time this week. It is declared by the Dowieites that when the "first apostle" enters the city which he founded, he will do so as the head of the church. Voliva, they say, will be excommunicated.

Three Men Are Mangled.

Bluefield, W. Va., April 19.—A shot blew out in the Hemphill mine near Welch, igniting a keg of powder. A terrific explosion followed, Antoine Tipicci, an Italian miner, was killed instantly and two other men horribly burned and bruised. The injured were taken to the Miners' hospital at Welch. They are not expected to recover from the injuries received.

Was Cut a Dozen Times.

New York, April 19.—Thomas Moher was knocked down and cut a dozen times with a razor while on his way home last night. His assailant, said to be Robert Scott, a negro, former employe, barricaded himself against a mob.' Two policemen who went to arrest him, held the mob at bay with drawn revolvers until the reserves arrived. Moher may recover.

Yancey Hotel Burned.

Livingston, Mont., April 19.—The old Yancey hotel, located in the Yellowstone National park, was destroyed Tuesday. The fire originated from a defected chimney. The hotel was founded more than twenty years ago by John Yancey, who was familiarly known as "Uncle John," and who made it a popular resort for tourists.

MEETING OF THE STATE DOCTORS

A Large Attendance at the Florida Medical Association.

RECEPTION HELD LAST NIGHT

The Odd Fellows' Home the Scene of a Brilliant Affair—The Hospital Association [illegible] the Delegates—The Building Elaborately Decorated.

The [illegible] continued its session [illegible] at 9:30 yesterday morning, and there was a very good attendance and much interest manifested in the papers that were read.

The papers by Dr. Eduardo Andrade of Jacksonville on "What Service Can the Laboratory Render in the Diagnosis of Yellow Fever," was handled with much skill by the author, and it showed much knowledge of the subject matter.

[illegible] of Reynaud's Disease," and one on "Dengue," by Dr. J. N. Fogarty of Key West was a masterful paper and was prepared with skill and presented to the Association with considerable force.

During the forenoon session the election of officers came up, resulting in the following being chosen:

President—Dr. John D. McDiarmid, of DeLand.

First Vice-President—Dr. J. Lawrence of Tampa.

Second Vice-President—Dr. S. R. Mallory Kennedy of Pensacola.

Third Vice-President—Dr. J. M. Dell of Gainesville.

Secretary and Treasurer—Dr. J. D. Fernandez of Jacksonville.

Librarian—Dr. J. D. Love of Jacksonville.

Delegate to the American Medical Association—Dr. Jos. Y. Porter, State Health Officer. Alternates—Dr. J. Harrison Hodges of Gainesville and Dr. J. H. Pierpont of Pensacola.

Tampa was selected as the next meeting place of the Association.

The topic, "National Quarantine," by Dr. Hiram Byrd of Jacksonville was listened to with much attention and it proved of much interest to each member. After its reading there was much discussion and many interesting points brought out.

The session was adjourned for the dinner hour and at the appointed hour for re-convening there was a good attendance of the delegates.

Dr. Fernandez was called away and Dr. Byrd officiated as secretary of the meeting.

The discussion of the matter of quarantine was continued by Dr. Jos. Y. Porter and other members, and many very important points were brought out. The matter of National quarantine seemed to meet with approval, although it was manifest that even this method would meet with opposition from other States, which seemed inclined to control their own affairs in this line. [illegible] the general opinion of a majority of the doctors that, with a watchful care of the various places where mosquitoes breed, there need be no fear of another return of the yellow fever.

At the close of the discussion on this topic Dr. R. H. McGinnis of Jacksonville read a paper on "Should a Patient Be Informed of the Nature and Consequences of His Disease?" which was prepared with the usual care which has characterized each one of the papers so far presented.

The papers were called in an irregular order, so that those present who desired to get away could be given an opportunity to be heard.

The meeting closed at a late hour in the afternoon, when the session had been of much interest.

The Reception.

The reception at the beautiful Odd Fellows' Home building last night tendered by the Hospital Association to the members of the Florida Medical Association, and which also invited the [illegible] and their wives [illegible] the members of the [illegible] was one of the events that will be remembered for a long time [illegible] [illegible] perfectly arranged [illegible] [illegible] Jr., [illegible] the head of the committee [illegible] a sufficient guarantee that the needful was provided [illegible] the committee on [illegible] J. A DIFFERENCE IN LUNGS.

In the Edinburgh University three human lungs lie side by side. One is of an Esquimo and is snow white; in life, that would be judged rich blood. Another is that of a coal-miner and is black. The other is of a town dweller and is a dirty slate gray, as are the lungs of most city residents. That's why consumption thrives in cities.

One reason why Scott's Emulsion does so much to keep down consumption is because it helps to keep the lungs clean and supplies them with rich red blood. It makes the lungs germ-resisting. If the body is run down and health is at a low ebb Scott's Emulsion will build it up quickly and permanently.

and every nook and corner was a bower of beauty, and fragrant with the perfume of beautiful flowers, enlivened with the daintiest trimmings and all the charms that nature brings to this land of flowers.

As the guests entered the brilliantly lighted hall, flowers, ferns and running vines of bamboo are gracefully festooned to lace, entwine the stairway and every place where they would charm the eye. Here Master James Bodiford took charge of the gentlemen, while the ladies are attended to by the following ladies in the receiving line: Mrs. E. D. Phillips, Miss Ida Bodiford, Mesdames E. E. Webster, J. M. Dell, J. F. McKinstry, J. J. Jackman, W. E. Hill, DeCosta, Chapin, McCreary, Bodiford, Johnson and McCollum. The ladies were then made at ease and allowed the pleasure of the various refreshment booths and the spacious parlors.

The commodious banqueting hall was very lavishly decorated, green and white being the scheme. Lilies, ferns, palms, banana trees and all the lovely flowers that charm the eye seemed to be here, and the refreshment committee consisted of Mesdames Richards, Jordan, Jackman, A. W. Taylor, Archie Brown, McBeath and P. M. Colsom. These ladies had tables trimmed with flowers, illuminated with diminutive incandescent lights, and best of all served the daintiest refreshments consisting of ice cream, fancy cake, confections, coffee, etc. The coffee table in one corner, was presided over by Miss Belle McKinstry and Mrs. Woods. This was a feature that attracted all and each one expressed satisfaction as they took their departure.

The punch bowl was an attractive spot, and it was decorated with the very refreshing beverage that found a ready demand. Presided over by Mrs. S. J. Thomas, she was ably assisted by the Misses Nichols, Bodiford, Burkhim and Fennell.

In the room to the right of the main entrance was a "den" prepared for the gentlemen, where all kinds of smokers' articles were arranged on a table in the center of the room and this was supplied with cozy seats, where disciples of Esculapius could quaff the fragrant Havana and tell of the deadly effect of narcotics on the system of all except doctors.

The parlor was stripped of most of the furniture and there were only a few decorations, as this was the place where the lovers of song and literature were entertained by the Misses Burkhim and Fennell with piano selections, Mrs. J. F. McKinstry, Jr., a Mr. Dale of Atlanta and Dr. Cutherland of High Springs with vocal selections, Mrs. J. W. McCollum with a recitation, and a duet by Mesdames Goodwin and Becker. This part of the evening was heartily enjoyed and added much to the pleasure of all present.

Every detail was carried out to the satisfaction of all guests, and the many compliments bestowed by the people from abroad were ample proof that the ladies were equal to every emergency, and nothing was left undone to make this event the finest seen in the city for many years.

A Convalescent's Bedtime.

A convalescent patient should never be permitted to sit up late at night. After the evening meal it is well for all visitors to be excluded from the room and the patient's mind should be kept as free from excitement as possible. The hour for retiring should be early and such means employed for aiding sleep as may be directed by the physician. A glass of hot milk at bedtime is often a good device for promoting sleep.

London.

London was a place of importance even under the Romans and was famed for its great commerce as early as the first centuries of the Christian era. From the Romans it received municipal institutions which have endured in their main features to the present day. In Saxon times it was, in reality, a small independent state.

THE DOCTORS OUR GUESTS.

The meeting of the State Medical Association in our city brings to our doors some of the ablest professional men in the State, and men who should have the respect of the entire people. While their profession is that of healing the sick, they are always busy doing all in their power to prevent the spread of every disease, to the detriment of their source of income, not thinking of the money there is in it for them, but of the welfare of their locality. Few professional men are possessed of the spirit of magnanimity that the regular physician manifests and few appreciate his efforts, unless he heroically arrests their departure for the sweet bye and bye.

The Sun hopes they may be pleased with their stay in our city, and also that they may call and see us many more times before we receive a call from the undertaker.

Don't advertise your afflictions, as it only increases their circulation.

California must have something to attract the attention of the world or they are not happy.

Judge Gordon of the criminal court in Tampa now permits smoking during the sessions. He thinks that some of the orange blossoms which appear before his honor can stand a little disinfectant, as they have a decidedly unholy odor.

Minnesota produced eighty million pounds of butter last year. That is just about a pound for every man, woman and child in the country, which is a very strong showing, yet it is stated that not a pound of the butter was strong.

C. R. Hawk, former editor of The Tampa Herald, has sued that paper for $5,500, which it is claimed he invested in the paper in various and diverse ways. Better settle the matter before the courts get a lien on the entire outfit.

The old man Dowie is getting a large amount of free advertising in the papers which he does not deserve. He and his entire outfit should be ignored by all decent people, and the sooner they disappear from the public press the better it will be for all concerned.

The Wholesale Grocers' Association has been in session in Jacksonville this week, and they may resolve to raise the prices of the necessaries of life, to all of which the people must submit, for what can they do about it? The grocery trust has the same kind of a heart that all others have.

SURPLUS FARM CAPITAL.

Sooner or later it will be necessary to make the distinction in the study of currency and finance, between surplus farm capital and surplus trade capital. Farming in the United States, through the greater part of its history, has been marked by scarcity of capital along with abundance of land. Now that the lands are being more fully occupied, and free capital has become cheaper because more abundant, an increasing proportion of the working capital of the country is not only put into farming for permanent investment, but also remains in the rural communities as a working reserve for expenditures in improvements, in luxuries, or in whatever line the tastes and interests of farmers may choose to expend it. Gradually the financial economy of farming is differentiating itself from the economy of commerce. They are still related, but nevertheless distinct, says The Wall Street Journal.

The once common idea that farm surplus hastened to city banks to hibernate, and then hied to the country with the coming of spring, is increasingly a thing of the past. Farm capital can employ itself profitably nearer home. It is beginning to find ways of earning something while waiting for opportunities to invest in lands, or to make improvements in farm methods and properties. Millions of this surplus are also going into that intangible form of investment which is called education. No portion of the population is doing this more carefully than the people who live on the farms of the country. They believe it pays. They believe in giving their own children a better chance than they, themselves, have had. It takes considerable cash capital to carry out such ambitions, but it helps to account for the fact that the country is getting along swimmingly, with plenty of capital, while the money center of the Western Hemisphere is writhing in stringency. In Kansas, for instance, a State mortgaged to desperation ten years ago, the bank commissioner reports that the farmers deposited $10,000,000 in the banks in a period of seventy days recently closed.

It is high time to realize that crop-growing and crop-moving sections are very largely capable of financing their own industrial as well as their own commercial operations. The demands for currency from the Eastern money centers by the Southern and Western centers in the fall and spring are not so much for farming purposes as for local commercial uses, to take the place of the withdrawals of farm capital for actual operations. This gives farming a financial independence which ought to be fully appreciated in any plan for the permanent improvement of our financial system.

There are three public schools in Alachua county where a young man can get an education that will fit him for the ordinary pursuits of business, if he does not care to enter a college and partake of the higher education. The graduates from these schools, which include, besides the one in this city, the high schools of High Springs and Waldo, can enter the State University on their diplomas they receive at either of the three, without further examination, and thus they are saved the expense of going away from home to attend a preparatory school to fit themselves for the University. This state of affairs has been made possible through the workings of that now famous Buckman school law, a measure that will make its author famous for the good he has done for the rising generation in Florida.

Pensacola has fifteen parks and will appoint three commissioners for each park without pay.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

The East Florida Telephone Company of this city is now in speaking distance with so many places that the farmers are finding it almost indispensable, and it has proven of great benefit to the business men as well. It is in reality the business telephone of the county and a person living in the country can keep in touch with everything going on in the city if he has this 'phone. The service is first-class and it is managed by men who see that nothing interferes to delay business over its lines.

The election of the young Republican mayor of Milwaukee is claimed by Senator LaFollette as a victory for himself. Roosevelt does not figure in the victory no more than a decree of Providence. There is need of an investigation, it would seem.

WOULD HAVE DIED BUT FOR CUTICURA.

"My little son, when about a year and a half old, began to have sores come out on his face. I had a physician treat him, but the sores grew worse. Then they began to come on his arms, then on other parts of his body, and then one came on his chest, worse than the others. Then I called another physician. Still he grew worse. At the end of about a year and a half of suffering he grew so bad I had to tie his hands in cloths at night to keep him from scratching the sores and tearing the flesh.

"He got to be a mere skeleton, and was hardly able to walk. My Aunt advised me to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. So great was her faith in it that she gave me a small piece of Soap to try and a little of the Ointment. I took it home without any faith, but to please her I tried it, and it seemed to dry up the sores a little.

"I sent to the drug store and got a cake of the Soap and a box of the Ointment and followed the directions, and at the end of about two months the sores were all well. He has never had any sores of any kind since.

"He is now strong and healthy, and I can sincerely say that only for your most wonderful remedies my precious child would have died from those terrible sores. I used only one cake of Soap and about three boxes of Ointment. (signed) Mrs. Egbert Sheldon, R. F. D., No. 1, Woodville, Conn, April 22, 1905."
